How Active is the Tour?

We don't take long country hikes. We try to use hotels which have elevators and portage for luggage where possible. But you must be in good enough health to travel. Among other things you must be able to –

Stand or walk with our guides, inside and outdoors, sometimes in inclement weather;
manage coach steps several times a day;
manage your own luggage;
climb stairs in some hotels;
walk city streets
(Edinburgh has some steep hills and steps).

Our Itinerary

Day 1: Sunday, October 3 - Welcome to Scotland! Group members will make their own flight arrangements. Arrive Edinburgh this morning. Spend the day as you wish in this delightful city and check in to your hotel. Meet your tour manager for an early evening welcome reception and dinner. Meals included – welcome dinner Overnight: Edinburgh City Center

Day 2: Monday, October 4 - Our journey begins....The first part of our journey takes us through the rugged landscape of Rannoch Moor and on through majestic Glen Coe. We'll make stops to catch up on sights and history along this lovely road. Tonight we'll be in Ballachulish on Scotland's West Coast. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight: Ballachulish

Day 3: Tuesday, October 5 - On the Misty Isle We spend some time on the hauntingly beautiful Isle of Skye – the "Misty Isle". We tour northwards, taking in the stunning scenery and learning a little about life past and present on this island. At Uig we board the ferry and we are headed to the Outer Hebrides. Our destination is Tarbert on the Island of Harris. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight – Isle of Harris

Day 4: Wednesday, October 6 - Harris and Lewis These breathtaking islands have a culture all of their own, a Gaelic speaking population and several small, Presbyterian denominations, apart from the Church of Scotland. We'll learn about this. But we'll also see some pre-Christian history as we visit the incredible standing stones at Callanish which are thought to be 5000 years old. We'll visit a very fine example of a broch (an ancient dwelling) and the Arnol Blackhouse where we can find out about "crofting" as a way of life. There is so much to see here. And Harris has some of the loveliest, windswept beaches you can find. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight: Isle of Harris

Day 5: Thursday, October 7 - From the Islands to the Highlands We can learn about the weaving of world famous Harris Tweed before leaving Tarbert this morning. The ferry from Stornoway takes us back to a different part of the mainland, this time to Ullapool. We are among some of Scotland's finest scenery. After a stop in Inverness, we come to our hotel for tonight by the Cairngorm Mountains. Meals included – breakfast Overnight: Aviemore

Day 6: Friday, October 8 - Perth: "The Fair City" We turn south and continue through the majesty of the Scottish Highlands. We'll find out what life used to be like here as we visit the excellent Highland Folk Museum at Kingussie. Then on to Perth. Dinner tonight begins with a haggis ceremony. Meals included – breakfast, dinner Overnight – Perth

Day 7: Saturday, October 9 - The Kingdom of Fife We'll see a little of Dundee – a city once said to be famous for "jute, jam and journalism", now undergoing change with investment in its waterfront. Then we'll explore the "East Neuk" of Fife – charming fishing villages, surrounded by fine farmland. Meals included – breakfast Overnight – Perth

Day 8: Sunday, October 10 - Back in Edinburgh: "The Athens of the North" We make a stop to share Morning Worship with a Church of Scotland congregation. Arriving in Edinburgh, the rest of this day is free until evening. Enjoy Scotland's historic capital city! Tonight we have our closing time together with worship followed by a special dinner. Meals included – breakfast, celebration dinner Overnight – Edinburgh City Center

Day 9: Monday, October 11 - Departures Haste ye back! Meals included – breakfast

The above program is a fair representation of the proposed tour but is subject to change at the discretion of Scotus Tours

*Dear Fellow Traveler,
People are always telling me they would love to visit Scotland.
Whether it is the majestic scenery of the highlands which attracts them; or our castles, churches and cities steeped in history; or maybe our proud tradition of hospitality – all these and more combine to make a trip to Scotland an unforgettable experience.*

For people of faith Scotland also has much to offer. Christianity came to these shores no later than the sixth century. And the impact of the Reformation has extended far around the world.

I'm a native Scot and minister of the Church of Scotland. I've also served in the PC(USA). So I am delighted to be offering this tour. I want you to enjoy an outstanding trip; to see the real Scotland; to discover, in particular, our sacred heritage. And I run Scotus Tours to make that possible.

Jim
