Up to 91 days.....	deposit
75 - 90 days.....	50% of tour cost
61 – 74 days.....	60% of tour cost
15 - 60 days.....	75% of tour cost
Less than 15 days.....	100% of tour cost

Insurance: We strongly recommend that you obtain adequate insurance coverage.

Times of Worship: This is a custom tour for a church group. We aim to include time for –

- A service of welcome
- Morning prayers on the coach
- Evening devotions before dinner on most days
- Sunday service
- Closing worship

Arrival in Scotland and Tour Departure:

This is a “land only” tour and begins on Monday, May 6, 2019. Travel arrangements prior to that are at your own discretion. Flights into Glasgow from the US mostly arrive in the morning. There is no program on Day 1 until early evening when we meet for a welcome dinner. You may, of course, arrive a day or two early or choose to stay on after the tour.

How Active is the Tour? We don’t take long country hikes. Most hotels we use have elevators and portorage for luggage. But, among other things, you do need to be able to –

- Stand or walk with our guides, inside and outdoors, sometimes in inclement weather
- Manage coach steps several times a day
- Occasionally manage your own luggage
- Climb stairs in some hotels
- Walk city streets (Edinburgh has some steep hills and steps)

Our Itinerary

Day 1 - Monday, May 6: Welcome to Scotland!

Group members will make their own flight arrangements. Arrive Glasgow this morning. Spend the day as you wish and check in to your hotel. Meet your tour manager for an early evening welcome dinner.

Meals included – welcome dinner

Overnight: Glasgow City Center

Day 2 - Tuesday, May 7: Edinburgh – The Athens of the North

With our coach loaded we make the 1 hour drive to Edinburgh. Today we'll have an orientation to Scotland's capital. From the cobbled streets of its Old Town to the Georgian grandeur of the New Town, Edinburgh is a truly beautiful city full of history and full of life. Our guide will walk us back in time but will also explain much about modern living in this vibrant city. We see Greyfriars Kirk and hear about the Covenanters. And we end the afternoon at the very modern buildings of the Scottish Parliament. Then our coach takes us north to Perth in time for dinner.

Meals included – breakfast, dinner

Overnight – Perth

Day 3 - Wednesday, May 8: St Andrews - The Auld Grey Toon

We begin the morning with a guided tour in the magnificent St John's Kirk of Perth. It was here that John Knox preached the sermon which set light to the Reformation in Scotland. We then turn to the east coast and the charming little town of St. Andrews. One of our excellent professional guides will lead a walking tour. St Andrews boasts Scotland's oldest university where many of the Kirk's ministers have been educated. It is a significant site for the history of the Reformation. We see the castle and cathedral ruins. There will also be free time to browse in the stores or maybe walk along the West Sands. Golfers can look longingly at the Old Course. We return to Perth via the Tay Bridge and city of Dundee. Dinner this evening begins with a haggis ceremony, complete with bagpipes and the poetry of Rabbin Burns. And you can taste a little haggis if you wish.

Meals included – breakfast, dinner

Overnight – Perth

Day 4 - Thursday, May 9: Inverness – The Capital of the Highlands

We travel among beautiful scenery today en route to Inverness. We ride the Cairngorm Mountain Railway – an ingenious funicular which takes us all the way to the top. And we make a visit to the Culloden Battlefield Center where we can learn about Bonnie Prince Charlie and the Jacobites. We arrive at our hotel in the center of Inverness, sometimes called “the capital of the Highlands”. Stroll out along the riverbank this evening and find a nice place for dinner.

Meals included – breakfast

Overnight: Inverness

Day 5 - Friday, May 10: The Great Glen and Inverness

(Today's itinerary subject to ferry times)

We leave Inverness to drive down through the Great Glen and by Loch Ness where we watch out for monstrous events. Near Fort William we see "Neptune's Staircase", an ingenious series of locks on the Caledonian Canal. A distillery visit is also on our program. Our route takes us south past Glen Coe – a beautiful place which witnessed an infamous event in Scotland's history. Arriving in the picturesque west coast port of Oban, we catch the ferry. Less than an hour later our boat docks at Craignure on the Isle of Mull. We travel across Mull to Fionnphort. The passenger ferry over to Iona only takes a few minutes and completes our journey.

Afternoon of Day 5 (May 10) through Morning of Day 9 (May 14) – On Iona

This part of the program is directed by your group leader. Our tour manager will not accompany you. Accommodation and meals have been arranged as shown.

Meals included –

breakfast and dinner each day (ie 4 breakfasts, 4 dinners)

Overnight – Iona (4 Nights)

Day 9 – Tuesday, May 14: Back to the Mainland

(Today's itinerary subject to ferry times)

After breakfast we take the short ferry over to Fionnphort to be met by our coach. We drive back across Mull to Craignure. The ferry takes us to Oban and we continue on to Glasgow. We'll be passing by the Bonnie Banks of Loch Lomond on the way.

Meals included – breakfast , dinner      Overnight: Glasgow

Day 10 – Wednesday, May 15: Farewell and Haste Ye Back!

Departures after breakfast      Meals included: breakfast

The above program is a fair representation of the proposed tour but is subject to change at the discretion of Scotus Tours

Rev Julia Carlson

Back in 2007, a few of us waiting on the pier for the ferry departing Iona reluctantly agreed to board the boat by promising our souls we would return; I made the same promise at the Edinburgh airport in reference to the whole of Scotland. A Celtic theologian wrote, 'Your soul knows the geography of your destiny.' God speaks to us in many ways; in church and beyond the walls of church; in our everyday lives and in wild, new landscapes; through written wisdom and in physically journeying across the sea. This is an invitation to join me as a seeker in Scotland in May, 2019. 'Your soul alone has the map of your future, therefore you can trust this indirect, oblique side of yourself. If you do, it will take you where you need to go, but more important, it will teach you a kindness of rhythm in your journey.'

Julia Carlson

Dear Fellow Traveler,

People are always telling me they would love to visit Scotland. Whether it is the majestic scenery of the highlands which attracts them; or our castles, churches and cities steeped in history; or maybe our proud tradition of hospitality – all these and more combine to make a trip to Scotland an unforgettable experience.

Jim Wallace on tour at Loch Lomond

For people of faith Scotland also has much to offer. Christianity came to these shores no later than the sixth century. And the impact of the Reformation has extended far around the world.

I'm a native Scot and minister of the Church of Scotland. I've also served in the PC(USA). So I am delighted to be offering this tour. I want you to enjoy an outstanding trip; to see the real Scotland; to discover, in particular, our sacred heritage. And I run Scotus Tours to make that possible.
